

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JADE ALEXANDER BEAVIN,

Defendant.

CASE NO. MJ22-276

DETENTION ORDER

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

Defendant is charged by complaint with unlawful possession of a firearm on January 24, 2020. The pretrial and probation report indicates that at the time of the alleged offense, Defendant was on Supervision with the Department of Corrections. This is supported by the complaint's allegation that Defendant was stopped on January 24, 2020 based upon an active Department of Corrections warrant. Defendant was taken into state custody and thereafter went back and forth between imprisonment and work release. Imprisonment normally follows failure to abide by work release conditions, and Defendant was in prison until May 13, 2021. Although a second complaint has not yet been sworn, the United States proffered that Defendant may be

1 charged with unlawful possession of a firearm, this time allegedly occurring in May 2022. That
2 charge flows from Defendant's arrest and pending felony prosecution for taking a motor vehicle
3 and attempting to elude. In addition, the United States proffered Defendant may be charged with 4 another new offense involving a large amount of controlled substances and another firearm.
5 Defendant's criminal history goes back 14 years and it does not appear his misconduct is slowing
6 down. The Court also notes that Defendant's DOSA sentence was revoked, and numerous 7 warrants for failing to appear for court hearings have been issued, and Defendant has been 8 charged in the past with bail jumping. Based on how the present charges allegedly occurred 9 while on state supervision; defendant's rocky performance while on supervision resulting in 10 imprisonment, and the likelihood that additional new charges for unlawful possession of a 11 firearm and drug trafficking may be filed, the court concludes Defendant must be detained.

12 It is therefore ORDERED:

13 (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 14 Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable,
15 from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

16 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 17 counsel;

18 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 19 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined 20 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 21 connection with a court proceeding; and

22 (4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States
23 Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.
